NEARLY HALF MILLION QUIT IN BITUMINOUS FIELDS AT MIDNIGHT

ANS ARE CARRIED OUT WITHOUT DISORDERS

al Effect of Walkout Will Not Be Ascertained Before Monday Officials Claim—Reports from Various Fields Incomplete.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Bituminous coal fields of the nation were in a grip of a strike effective at midnight. Leaders of the union miners declared already had more than 394,000 of their members out of the works and until the strike should be settled. Thousands more of the miners whose whole number is roughly estimated at 500,000, would be out tomorrow, they said. The men already on strike, the leaders reported, were those who had left the mines today, taking their tools with them. Reports from the soft coal fields were very incomplete tonight and even the union leaders agreed they would wait tomorrow before being able definitely to state the number of men who had obeyed the strike call. In almost every instance, the miners' spokesman said, the tie up of the mines would be virtually complete. The unions will leave a sufficient number of men to man the pumps and keep the property from resumption of work when the strike shall be called off. Some union leaders refused to talk on account of an injunction order issued at Indianapolis. The union leaders tonight indicated that the miners in the great producing regions of Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Illinois, Kentucky, Colorado, Montana and Wyoming had left the mines at the day shift to remain on strike. It is generally expected that not before Monday can the actual number of men on strike be ascertained.

Time union leaders will have nearly complete reports from union locals and the coal operators will know to what extent they will be able to operate if they had decided to attempt actual mining work. A less belligerent expression from Frank J. Drum, president of District No. 16, Cumberland, Md., who said he did not think the injunction would effect the miners and that they would quit any way. A question in controversy in North Dakota is whether the miners' contract with the operators was effective until Sept. 20, 1920. The operators contend that they have such a contract that would make a strike illegal. Henry Drennan of Billings, Mont., president of District 27, asserted that that was merely the operators' view and that miners of both Montana and North Dakota would all quit work. Coal operators of Eastern Kentucky predicted that less than five per cent of their men would strike. The operators said they paid from 15 to 20 per cent better wages than the union scale and that the men never had been well unionized. Western Kentucky operators said they would not be affected by the strike. Paducah officials asserting that they had signed an agreement with the miners six weeks ago, the agreement forbidding them to strike.

While operators generally have declared they would not attempt to operate their mines while the men were on strike unless the government ordered, some states like Illinois and Oklahoma have laws requiring the examination of miners which might interfere if attempts were made to operate with inexperienced or unlicensed miners. ARMOUR & CO., FINED $1,100 Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 31.—Pleading guilty to twenty-nine out of thirty counts, Armour & Co., Chicago, were fined $1,100 by Judge Page in district court today for keeping 160,000 pounds of meat in cold storage for more than a year without obtaining a permit from the health department.

RESCUE PARTIES RECOVER FIVE BODIES Amsterdam, Ohio, Oct. 31.—Rescue parties tonight found the body of James Gray and four other bodies of the twenty-four men who were killed in the explosion at the Youngsboro and Ohio Coal Company's mine No. 2 as they reached the entrance of Entry No. 2. FOOTBALL INJURY CAUSES DEATH Moline, Ill., Oct. 31.—Joseph Blauke, 16, died yesterday, Moline's first football victim of 1919.

STRIKE BULLETINS

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—With federal troops in West Virginia requested by Governor Cornwell, the central department of the army, commanded by General Leonard Wood, anticipated no further movement of troops tonight. In connection with the strike of soft coal miners it was said at headquarters. The department was prepared for any emergency.

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Oct. 31.—Orders were telegraphed tonight from headquarters of District No. 21, United Mine Workers of America here calling upon all miners in Oklahoma, Arkansas and Texas to obey the strike call at midnight.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 31.—Governor William C. Sproul tonight gave formal notice that the full power of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania thru all of its agencies will be used to protect those who desire to continue to work during the mine workers' strike.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Oct. 31.—Four hundred soldiers arrived here from Camp Taylor, Ky., at 6 p. m. for strike duty in the West Virginia fields. The men were not permitted to leave the cars.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Oct. 31.—Fifty-six miners and thirty company men of the McLean County Coal company left the shaft at 4 o'clock this afternoon. No unusual incidents marked their walkout. The only men left in the mine are those caring for fires.

PADUCAH, Ky., Oct. 31.—Coal mine operators in this city tonight declared that the strike of bituminous coal miners set for the West Kentucky fields. Officials of the St. Charles mine with offices in Paducah said that the operators had signed an agreement with the miners six weeks ago which forbids them to participate in the present strike.

NEARLY 80,000 MEN IN ILLINOIS OBEY QUIT WORK ORDER

900 Mines in State to Cease to Operate as Result.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 31.—Approximately 80,000 soft coal miners in Illinois had obeyed the strike order of their officials by 5 o'clock this afternoon according to an announcement at state miners' headquarters. The men who left the workings of the 900 odd mines in the Illinois district before mid-night, the hour set for the cessation of work, constituted the day shift of 70,000 mine workers in the state. They took with them their tools and belongings and an admonition of their local officials to "keep away from the shafts."

Only a few of the 10,000 miners who make up the night force were expected to report in for work. Complete desertion of the mines, union officials here said, would result from the fact that Illinois is strongly organized. Operators informed their departing employees that whistles would be sounded for work as usual tomorrow morning.

No disorders were reported in connection with the desertion of the mines and officials said they expected none unless provocation was given by persons outside of the miners' ranks. Quietude in the mine fields made unnecessary any activity on the part of the peace authorities or military commanders, although it was understood in state government circles that preparations have been completed to afford adequate protection of life and property if the need for action arises.

For the most part, it was pointed out here, miners will not learn of the injunction proceedings brought by the government to break the strike until tomorrow because of the inaccessibility of many of the camps.

MRS. RUSSELL SAGE LEAVES LARGE ESTATE New York, Oct. 31.—Mrs. Russell Sage left an estate with a gross value of $49,051,045, according to a report of the state appraiser made public today.

UNION HEADS VOICE OBJECTION TO COURT ACTION

Denunciate Order as a Violation of Constitutional Rights

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The big news in the coal strike situation today was the federal court's order forbidding the walkout. It was followed by a long line of developments and opened the door to wide possibilities.

The principal leaders in the miners' union met the court's action with denunciation as a "violation of constitutional rights;" declarations that it came too late to reach their men with a commanding order and with predictions that it would be disregarded anyway.

During the night mixed reports were coming in from the mining states of men who decided to remain at work and others who went on strike despite the court's restraining order. It is not possible to estimate what proportion walked out. The real test may not come until Monday. Saturday generally is a "dead" day in the mines.

Meanwhile, organized labor leaders showed signs of taking up cudgels on a general issue over the right to strike.

President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor with "President" Wall and Secretary Morrison protested as a delegation to Attorney General Palmer against the government's action in suing out the injunction and predicted that it could "only result in creating new and more disturbing issues which may not be confined solely to the miners."

Heads of the great railway brotherhoods also conferred with attorney general but disclaimed that they did more than offer services to interstate.

Attorney General Palmer emphasized to the labor leaders that no government's injunction was a wise infringement of the workman's right to strike, but that it was a lawful process against a calamity to the country. He pointed out that the injunction had been issued for the government acting for all the people and not for the employers. He said in conflict with their employees.

The attorney general declined to predict what would be done if the miners failed to heed the federal court's order, pointing out that the court itself initiates means to deal with those who disregard its mandates.

All day long the government continued steadily taking measures to deal with the practical as well as the legal phase of the crisis.

President Wilson by executive order fixed maximum prices of soft coal.

Fuel Administrator Garfield restored the war orders which give the railroad administration the power to seize coal on transit and divert it to consumption in accordance with a preference list arranged with the idea of doing the greatest good for the greatest number.

The machinery of the railroad administration thru which the acts of the fuel administration will be carried which put ready "or functioning."

United States troops began arriving in some of the mining districts ready to take part in keeping order and protecting those miners who wished to continue at work. The extent and full nature of the troop movements were not disclosed but it was apparent that he war department was acting on carefully worked out plan to authorities reinforced by federal deputy marshals were unequal to the situation.

Congress continued to show its temper and the house amid peaches of denunciation of an attempt to paralyze the country unanimously passed the resolution pledging support to the administration in its measures to deal with the emergency.

BELGIANS SAIL FROM HAMPTON ROADS

OLD POINT COMFORT, Oct. 31.—The transport George Washington steamed away from Hampton Roads at 1:30 o'clock today bearing King Albert of the Belgians, Queen Elizabeth, Prince Leopold and their suite homeward bound after twenty-nine days in the United States. The guns at the Norfolk Navy yard boomed a national salute as the barges carrying the royal party cast off from the pier. Aboard the George Washington, boatswains' whistles piped them over the side and the ship's band played the Brabant, while Captain McAuley stood at salute at the gangway and the ship's crew manned the rails.

ESTIMATED NUMBER IN WALKOUT

The following table by states of men who left the mines today and tonight to obey the strike call is based on reports, in most instances estimates received by union leaders thruout the country:

Arkansas	4,000
Colorado	5,000
Illinois	80,000
Indiana	25,000
Iowa	14,000
Kansas	12,000
Kentucky	20,000
Maryland	1,800
Michigan	2,400
Missouri	1,000
Montana	4,000
New Mexico	4,000
Ohio	40,000
Oklahoma	6,000
Pennsylvania	100,000
Tennessee	2,000
Texas	2,500
Utah	1,000
Washington	6,000
West Virginia	40,000
Wyoming	8,000

EARLY FINAL VOTE ON GERMAN PEACE TREATY LAUNCHED

Senator Lodge Proposes the Final Roll Call for Nov. 12.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Formal negotiations for an early final vote on ratification of the German peace treaty were launched today in the senate.

Proposal that a final roll call was made by Chairman Lodge of the foreign relations committee while Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, the administration leader, presented a counter-proposal to limit to fifteen minutes each senator's debate on all questions beginning next week but without proposing a definite date for the ratification vote.

Both proposals went over without discussion until Monday, the senate adjourning without reaching a vote on any of the pending amendments.

Confidence of acceptance by all Republicans of his plan to dispose of the treaty on November 12 was expressed tonight by Senator Lodge. Senator Hitchcock and other Democrats indicated they would stand on the plan to curtail debate without agreement upon a definite voting date. Limitation of debate, the administration forces feel would secure a final vote early in November.

The proposals for ending the long drawn out contest came at the close of another day of routine debate on the motion of Senator Lodge, Republican of Wisconsin to strike out the labor section of the treaty.

Senator Lodge's proposal for an unanimous consent agreement for a vote on Nov. 12 provides that the senate proceed at 5 o'clock on that date to vote on all pending questions and the resolution of ratification without further debate.

Senator Lodge's program also proposes that from November 3 to November 9, inclusive each senator be allowed only an hour's discussion on each amendment, reservation or other question and that the time be cut to ten minutes from Nov. 10.

The plan of Senator Hitchcock to limit senator's time to fifteen minutes on all questions also called for daily convening of the senate at 11 o'clock.

The formal suggestions of two leaders followed a futile informal parley between Senator Fall, Republican of New Mexico and Senator Hitchcock for a final vote on November 10.

GARFIELD GIVES OUT PREFERENCE LIST

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Fuel Administrator Garfield late today signed an order reviving the distribution and diversion orders of the fuel administration under which the old list of priorities immediately becomes effective. He said it was not contemplated at present to revive any other orders.

The preference list as it will now stand will operate in this order: Railroads, army and navy and other government departments.

State and county offices and institutions, public utilities. Retail dealers, manufacturing plants on the war industries board preference list.

Industries not on the list: Jobbers, lake steamers, steamers at tidewater.

COMPLETE ORGANIZATION

Washington, Oct. 31.—Completing its permanent organization with election of Secretary of Labor Wilson as president, the international labor conference today proceeded to the formulation of a different program of work with appointment of a commission of selection to act as a steering commission.

STANDING ARMY 300,000 PLENTY, SAYS PERSHING

Views of General Differ from Those of General Staff.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Dismissing in many important respects from the program recommended by the war department and the general staff, General Pershing told the military committee of congress today that 300,000 men, raised entirely by voluntary enlistment, should be the outside figure considered for a standing army.

He favored universal military training to provide an emergency reserve but thought general educational work should be combined with it and military discipline "somewhat relaxed" so that the system would be in complete harmony with democratic institutions. He fixed six months as the training period.

The department had recommended an army of more than 500,000 with a system of universal training not embracing the educational feature.

Its recommendation for a training period was three months. Departing again from the expressed views of the department, the general declared army purchasing should be reorganized in a new bureau apart from the quartermaster corps, and that a separate department of the government should be organized to coordinate and supervise military, naval and commercial aeronautics. He considered the department's request for 231 general officers excessive, and made clear his opposition to any effort by the staff to extend its authority into the details of the department bureaus and of the line.

During his day of testimony before the two committees, General Pershing expressed several times his unfamiliarity with the present make-up and policy of the general staff and emphasized that: "I am speaking directly from his experience in the field. When one representative asked whether he approved an apparent tendency of the staff to project its control into details of the line he brought his fist down upon the table and snapped: "I certainly do not."

He was equally emphatic when a senator asked whether the staff ought not to take the military committees into its confidence about the general situation in the army.

"I am quite sure of it," he quickly replied. "Only once or twice did the questioning lead him into discussion of the activities of the American armies in France, that he is expected to come in for more detailed consideration later."

His statements which he expected to be the last heard by the committees before they began framing re-organization legislation may run into next week.

FIRST STEPS TAKEN BY OPERATORS TO ARBITRATE STRIKE

Investigation of Differences by Tribunal Appointed by Wilson Urged

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 31.—The first step to a possible arbitration of differences between soft coal operators and approximately half a million miners in the threatened coal strike, scheduled for midnight, was taken here today at a conference of the executive committee of the central competitive coal field by the adoption of a resolution welcoming an investigation of the strike by a tribunal which President Wilson may appoint. Following this action the conference adjourned.

In the resolution the operators reaffirmed acceptance of President Wilson's proposal of October 24th and welcomed an investigation by a tribunal approached by him with a view to an early settlement of the question at issue.

Possibility of the mines being worked in the event the strike takes place seems remote according to some of the operators who pointed out that some states require an examination of all mine workers and that there might not be enough men to successfully pass this examination. At the same time however, they declared they will keep the mines open and do all in their power to continue them in operation, if the government so orders.

"The Pittsburgh vein operators' association operating more than one hundred mines with 15,000 union employees today voted to notify all its miners to report for work tomorrow morning."

INJUNCTIONS AGAINST UNION CHIEFS ISSUED BY FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

Order Restrains Officials from Taking Any Further Part in the Promotion of Walkout of Men.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 31.—The strike of bituminous miners went into effect tonight with the national headquarters here of the United Mine Workers silenced by a restraining order issued today by Judge A. B. Anderson of the federal district court. No "last word" or other message to the members of the union could be issued by the executive board or officers of the organization and they only smiled grimly when this fact was brought to their attention.

While the strike order was effective at midnight, most of the men who were following it quit work with the ending of the day shift. It was stated several days ago at union headquarters that midnight of October 31 was selected for the official hour merely because it marked the beginning of Nov. 1, on which date the Cleveland convention of the union had decreed that the wartime wage agreement of the miners should terminate. United States deputies were busy all afternoon serving notice of the restraining order on union officials who had been missed in the general round up at noon when the meeting of the union's executive board was invaded by the process servers.

Leaders Served Eighteen of the union leaders were served. The visits made effective the order which C. B. Ames, assistant attorney general, had presented to the federal court and which restrained the defendants from issuing any messages, oral or written, that the strike is to be enforced as previously announced from issuing any further strike orders or messages of encouragement or exhortation and from distributing any strike bulletins.

The order was so sweeping that Judge Ames explained after its issuance that it would prevent any of the men named in the bill from addressing mass meetings. The petition by the government upon which the order was based, charged that the union men were conspiring to limit the facilities for the production of coal and to restrict the supply and distribution of the fuel. The writ as ardently commanded them to refrain from continuing the alleged conspiracy.

The petition emphasized that he suit was based upon a war time act by which the government was given control of the coal and fuel supplies of the country and also pointed out that the strike would cause a cessation of transportation and thus throw back upon the public treasury the burden of paying the guaranteed incomes which the government contracted to pay the railroad workers. It took control of the coal. It was also brought out that the act in question specifically provided that it was to continue in force until the end of the state of war had been proclaimed by the president.

Altogether eighty-four leaders of the big coal miners' union were named in the restraining order. Federal marshals here were given names of 25 men to serve in Indianapolis and reached 18 of them as follows:

John L. Lewis, acting president; William Green, secretary-treasurer; Percy Tellow, statistician; Ellis Searles, editor of the Mine Workers' Journal; John A. Wilson, district president of District 21, Muskogee, Okla., and the following members of the executive board: John O'Leary, Pittsburg; A. R. Watkins, Yorkville, Ohio; M. J. Ferry, Hazelton, Pa.; Lawrence Bramlet, Terre Haute, Ind.; Samuel Ballantyne, Boone, Iowa; Frank Walrype, McAlister, Okla.; Hugh McLeod, Wyo.; George Baker, Central.

WOMEN CAN VOTE TUESDAY

Women can vote in the election next Tuesday on the three questions of public policy. In this locality the majority of women who have looked into the matter are strongly opposed to these public policy questions. They fear that the initiative and referendum would make it easy for a small minority to conspire as to do away with the will of the majority.

PUBLIC POLICY QUESTION

When the questions of public policy come to your attention in the election next Tuesday, vote no. Danger lurks behind this initiative and referendum proposal. This question and the others presented are favored by the United Society of Cook county and other radicals. There is no good reason at this time why the delegates to the constitutional convention should be instructed as to the matters they are to consider and present to the voters at a subsequent election.

A QUALIFIED CANDIDATE.

George A. Wheeler, Republican candidate for county commissioner, is a successful farmer and practical business man. In his canvass for the office he has visited practically every part of the county and has improved the affairs and his evident desire to be of real service to the people of the county.

Mr. Wheeler has paid special attention to the road conditions of the county and is strongly in favor of maintaining good highways so far as funds will permit. He believes in the economical administration of county affairs and will make it a matter of earnest endeavor to elect to see to it that the county gets 100 cents of value for every dollar expended.

THE BOY AND GIRL PROBLEM

The question of dependent children as presented by Judge Paul Samuel on two occasions recently is one which is pressing for solution in this county. The records of the juvenile court show conclusively that there are many boys and girls in this county fatherless or motherless or perhaps without proper guardians, who are not receiving the care and attention to which they are entitled. Setting aside the matter of sentiment and duty, just from a mere dollar and cents standpoint, it is much cheaper for the county and the state to give its thought and attention to neglected and dependent or delinquent children, to improve them physically, mentally, and morally, and to make them good citizens rather than to let them grow up into years of useless or criminal maturity.

The problem of boys and girls is coming to be more and more recognized as the problem of society. If the lives of children are shaped correctly and under the right influences there will be no trouble about the future. The way to have good citizens fifteen or twenty years from now—to have men and women that are morally healthy—to have industrial and economic peace instead of strife and unrest—the way to accomplish all these things is by intelligent study of this problem of the boys and girls and then the application to this problem of common sense and genuine interest in the well-being of private individuals and society.

Judge Samuel has taken up a vital question and is placing it upon the hearts and consciences of the people of Morgan county. This matter of boys and girls—what can be done for them thru a detention home—is a question which merits the most careful thought and consideration and that right speedily.

DAYS OF WRATH

(From the Chicago Tribune)
The coal miners said they were willing to negotiate to prevent a strike. The operators said they were willing to negotiate and arbitrate to prevent a strike. So it was decided to do neither and have a strike.

That makes it nice. A railroad strike is somewhere in the wake of the coal strike, which, when it comes, will make it nicer. With a coal strike the public has merely to consider how best to freeze to death gracefully, but with a railroad strike as an added attraction the public will have an opportunity really to come out strong.

We may learn to get along without anything. It never has been done before. The public might succeed in a hunger strike. It can do no worse than try.

We emphatically assert that the public must not have its vital processes interrupted by these strikes. And we candidly concede that it does have its vital processes interrupted by them. A strike must not hit at the flat dweller's radiator, the householder's base burner, and suburbanite's furnace. And a strike does. The public must be protected and the public is not. The public is the ward of mandates and the victim of facts. The public always is king, but there is always a regency.

The boy who sits on the top of the world these days is the farmer. He is there. He can go to his dairy for his milk and the kids can gather the eggs. His potatoes are in his bins. His salt pork is in brine and hams are in the smokehouse. He can carry his own wheat to the mill.

He is a going concern if the world suspends. Sell your factory and buy a farm. The worst outlook is that of the farmer who is stuck on the farm.

There is nothing in the west but bolsheviks and nothing east but labor conferences. Buy a phonograph and a phord, put in a telephone, get a lot of machinery to do the work, let the cider harden by the insistent process of nature, and thus live, not caring whether Mr. Gompers or Mr. Gary has the world by the tail.

Rippling Rhymes By Walt Mason

The Cheerful Grocer.

Grocer Johnson is a peach, and he should be hired to teach optimism to his kind; he's a man of hopeful mind. In the thronging marts of trade optimism seems decayed; nearly every merchant prince seems to think that life's a quince, and he tells me tales of tears, and of doleful doubts and fears. Everyday I hear a spiel from the dealers as they deal, hear a narrative of woe, and of commerce lying low, lying profitless and dead, and of frightful times ahead. Every day I hear such bunk when I go to spend a plunk in the thronging marts of trade, where the hams and spuds are weighed. But in Johnson's moral shop I have heard no doleful yawn. Johnson skips around his store, leaving smoke along the floor, and he murmurs cheerful tunes as he weighs his boneless prunes. Tired of hearing people beef, it's to me a great relief, to encounter, then and now, one who has unfurrowed brow, and who chortles as he sells hard-boiled eggs and oyster shells. For too many people whine in this little groat of mine, putting up a doleful wheeze, when they should be on their knees, thanking Providence all day for the good that comes their way.

I will not be responsible for any bills contracted by any one other than myself. C. D. Meade.

Social Events

Annual Open Meeting of South Side Circle.

The annual meeting of the South Side Circle was held with Miss Winnie Wackerle at the Woman's college Friday evening. The meeting was held in Phi Nu society hall and about seventy five were present each member being privileged to bring a guest.

Miss Wackerle was assisted in receiving by Mrs. E. L. Kinney, Mrs. Herman Weber and Mrs. W. O. Wait. Mrs. Alex Platt is president of the Circle.

A program of musical numbers and readings was given as follows:

Vocal—Mrs. Florence Pierron Hartmann.

Reading—Miss Janette Powell.

Violin—Miss Clara Moore. The decorations were very effective, chrysanthemums and Halloween decorations predominating. A social hour followed the program and refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Robinson Observe Wedding Anniversary.

Friday was the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Robinson. In honor of the event about 25 of their neighbors and friends gathered at their home 853 North Main street. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson had made it known that they wanted them to forget the presents and honor them with their presence. However, in spite of this desire they were recipients of a number of handsome gifts.

The guests were all enmasque and the evening was spent in a pleasant manner with games and other amusements. Their daughter Louise came to the party arrayed in the wedding gown her mother wore a quarter of a century ago. Refreshments of oysters, cake and coffee were served and the guests departed at a late hour expressing the hope that the host and hostess would celebrate many more anniversaries.

Christian Endeavor Society Entertains.

The Christian Endeavor society of Northminster church entertained the members of the society and the congregation of the church at a masquerade party at Northminster Friday evening. Games of various kinds occupied the evening most pleasantly and all present enjoyed themselves. Chili and ice cream were included in the refreshments. The chili was made by the pastor of the church, Rev. W. E. Spoons, and was said to be very excellent. The officers of the society are:

President—Vincent Vieira.

Vice president—Wallace Baptist.

Secretary—Miss Ivadel DeFrates.

Treasurer—Miss Frances Frank.

The Mardi Club Meets With Mrs. Thomas Hopper.

One of the pleasant and profitable organizations of the city is the Mardi club composed of young ladies and young married women. They meet for social and intellectual purposes and have pleasant gatherings. The last was a Halloween party Thursday evening at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hopper on South Prairie street. The evening was pleasantly spent in games, socially, fortune telling and otherwise and nice refreshments rounded out an enjoyable evening. The house was handsomely decorated for the occasion.

Entertains Jasovi Camp Fire Girls.

Last evening Miss Elizabeth Cogswell entertained the Jasovi Camp Fire girls with a Halloween party at her home on Caldwell street.

The costumes and games were the main attraction of the evening.

Those present were: Bonnie Woods, Mabel Tholen, Marjorie Black, Virginia Spink, Alice Carter, Irene Groves, Elson Pires, Mary Winchester, Maurine Lindsey, Louise Strucke, Margaret Todd, Alice Laurie and Elizabeth Cogswell.

All had a very pleasant and enjoyable evening.

Miss Jones Entertains at Halloween Party.

A Halloween party was given yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Miss Elizabeth Jones, 346 West Court street. Games and music in keeping with the season were the attractions of the afternoon.

Those present were: Anna Van-nier, Francis Mosley, Mary Voss, Catherine Blackburn, Francis Cody, and Elizabeth Jones.

Hebron Sunday School Gave Halloween Party.

The Hebron Sunday School children gave a Halloween social at the church Friday night which was well attended. The decorations were in keeping with the Halloween season, many autumn leaves being used in the corners of the room and on the tables. There was a large attendance and the children were all masqued. Miss Bowman of the Public Library was present and told the children a number of Halloween stories. Refreshments of doughnuts, pie, ice cream and coffee were served in abundance. E. E. Hart is superintendent of the Sunday School and worked hard to make the affair a success. The committee in charge follows:

Domestic—Mrs. Frank Hunter.

Mrs. Richard Robinson, Mrs. Thomas Fox.

Decorations—Mrs. Amos Swain, Mrs. Thomas Brown and Mrs. Walter Wheeler.

Program—Mrs. William Richardson, Mrs. Charles Bealmer, Mrs. Harry Martin.

Halloween at the Josephine Milligan School.

Halloween was observed in a most fitting way at the Josephine Milligan school Friday. The children and teachers had made various plans for the occasion and the result was a most happy time for all. At the noon hour all joined in a parade, wearing costumes to which were added some clever Halloween touches. The line of march took in the immediate vicinity of the school and the parade ended at the prettily decorated dining tables. A special feature of the noonday meal was pumpkin pie and this treat was most heartily enjoyed by all the children. Altogether the day was a very pleasant one for the children of the open air school, and Miss Hammond and her assistants also found much enjoyment in the occasion.

Surprise Halloween Party.

Mr. and Mrs. George Barnhart of 1606 South Main street gave a surprise Halloween party Thursday evening in honor of their daughter Lucile and Bobbie Jane Weirich. The room was tastefully decorated with pumpkin faces, candles and flowers. Games were played. Stories and fortunes told by girls disguised as ghosts. There was much merriment during the evening. One of the features was a peanut hunt which was won by Helen Thompson and Henry Arenz. After roasting marsh-mallows the refreshments were served which consisted of sandwiches, pickles, apples and popcorn. Those assisting in entertaining were Mrs. George Barnhart, Mrs. Will Hehl, Mrs. Ed Young, Helen Baker and Jean LaRue.

The little folks present numbered forty-three. Lucile Barnhart, Bobby Jane Weirich, Wilfred Young, Lucile Melton, Stella Massey, Kathern Magill, Beatrice Sutton, Marguerite Sutton, Thelma Arenz, Helen Massey, Robert Coulter, Ralph Lumly, Richard Godfrey, Henry Arenz, Rose Godfrey, Earl Carter, Howard Lacey, Loyd Massey, Elzie Lumley, Kathern Filson, Dorothy Tendie, Marion Filson, Helen Tendie, Jenette Massey, Hazel Massey, Lena Lacy, Helen Thompson, Paul Lacey, Virginia Godfrey, Keith Godfrey, Floyd Karrake. All departed after having one big night.

Camp Fire Girls Gave Party.

The Yojasovi Camp Fire Girls gave a Halloween party in the Congregational church parlors Friday night. Members of the camp and their guests spent several hours with games and amusements suggestive of the Halloween anniversary. The decorations and refreshments were quite in accord with the other well considered details. Fortunes were told and the stunt which the company seemed to especially enjoy was "a trip thru Hades."

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Hehl, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Doane, Mrs. W. O. Baumgardner, Misses Ruth Bailley, Helen Robinson, Emma Daniels, Lucy Mount, Maude Ryman, Dorothea Pierson, Elva Osborne, John Putnam, Alvin Wolfe, Henry Irving, Edward Young, Warren Brockhouse, Walter Bradish, Reginald and Robert Reid, Tom Buckthorpe, Alfred Capps, George Adams, Samuel Osborne, Marion Parker, Harry Furry, Dessau Ames and Edward Cleary.

The members of the Yojasovi camp fire, of which Mrs. Hehl is the guardian, are Lois Harney, Carol Lander, Lavinia and Eliza-beth Scott, Caroline Doane, Edith Putnam, Helen Cleary, Helen Turner, Frances Griswold, Mary Edith Baumgardner, Dorothy Hairgrove, Katherine Wilson, Mary Jeanette Capps, Mabel Rogers and Helen Walton. The last four named formed the committee on arrangements for last night's successful party.

Halloween Party At Mosely Home.

Miss Virginia Mosely entertained a number of friends at her home on West North street Friday at a masquerade and Halloween social. The guests came masked and the unmasking caused much merriment. The evening was pleasantly spent with games and music and at a late hour refreshments were served.

Murrayville Rebekahs Entertain Odd Fellows.

Members of Murrayville Rebekah Lodge No. 76 entertained the Odd Fellows at Odd Fellows hall Friday evening at a Halloween party. All of the company were masked and the evening was spent with games and amusements of various kinds and refreshments were served. Miss Mildred Wright dressed as an Indian squaw, won the grand prize. T. G. Beadles won the prize for men. Mrs. Hall of Des Moines, dressed as a Canteen girl, won the prize for ladies and Mrs. Emma Warcup won the prize for the most comical costume.

Murrayville High School Celebrates Halloween.

Students of Murrayville celebrated Halloween at the high school building Friday evening. The first event was a parade thru the town streets of all the pupils in masquerade costumes. Upon the return to the school building there was a guessing of the identity of the various masquers. After that came the unmasking and then several contests, among them a gum chewing contest, chewing string and crackering eating.

Then each of the classes put on a "stunt." The intermissions were interspersed with musical numbers. The stunts follow:

Freshmen—Twelve girls dressed as ghosts in a descriptive poem the Battle of Blenheim.

Sophomores—Shadow Pictures. Reading—Miss Bergan.

Juniors—Indian Dance.

Seniors—Comic Operation.

After that the lights were extinguished and ghost stories told. This was followed by refreshments of pumpkin pie and cider.

Each pupil was privileged to invite a guest and the guest had to present a black cat of the door in order to gain admission. The decorations were all in keeping with the Halloween season.

MISS SERIOUS WRECK BY NARROW MARGIN

Burlington Southbound Freight Throws Four Coal Cars Across Road Main Line Tracks Two Minutes After Passing Northbound Train on Double Track Just North of City.

A railroad wreck of local interest occurred on the Burlington tracks one mile and a half north of Jacksonville Thursday night.

For some unknown reason four empty coal cars on southbound freight No. 6128 became derailed and were thrown across the tracks of the main line. The wreck occurred about eight o'clock and it was not until two o'clock Friday morning that the tangle was straightened out and the tracks cleared. The wrecking crew came down from Beardstown to do the work. This freight was in charge of Conductor Grosser and Engineer Dodds.

A fortunate incident connected with the wreck was that this southbound freight had passed northbound freight No. 6111 on the double tracked right of way just about two minutes before the smash-up occurred. If the cars had become derailed two minutes earlier, or at the time the two freight trains were passing, the property damage sustained by the road would have been enormous, not to mention the possible loss of life.

When northbound freight No. 6111, in charge of Conductor Heisse reached Concord, about the time the derailment of the southbound train was reported, one of its freight cars became derailed. This effectively blocked the main line at Concord also. So that it was necessary for the derrick from Beardstown to clear the track at Concord for the northbound train before it could get thru and go to the relief of the southbound freight which was tangled up a mile and one half north of this city.

No cause for the derailments is known according to Burlington employees.

COLLEGE SOCIETY MEMBERS ARRESTED

Presence of Phi's Adds Dignity to Local Police Station—Are Acquitted of Charge and Soon Released.

(By A. Phi)

Friday night members of Phi Alpha society after their regular meeting were wending their way to Batz' in a quiet and orderly manner. Upon reaching the door and perceiving some "Sigs" inside they paused upon the threshold and united in song in honor of the aforesaid "Sigs", the song being "Sigma Pi Ain't What She Used to Be." After this when they were going inside several officers of the law seized the last two to go in and bore them off to the trouble wagon. At this time the "Phi's" rushed out and demanded the cause of the disturbance. They were informed that they had been annoying the inmates of the Pacific. At that they demanded that they all be arrested. So in chain-gang formation and chanting such touching melodies as "In the Prison Cell I Sit" and "Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight" the cavalcade perambulated to the house of correction.

At their arrival they were charged not with the singing but with an entirely new charge to-wit: causing the percolation of the pulchritudinous pillars in front of the Alexander apartments to terra firma. Ed Tanner being spokesman this charge was easily disproved and the prisoners were set at freedom.

They then adjourned to the Blue Room at Batz' and held an impromptu banquet, felicitating themselves upon the delivery. After the banquet Akers was chosen toastmaster and talks were listened to from the following: Martin, Tanier, Thompson, Rossier, Karr, Best, Fierke, Dews, Galaway, Mendenhall, and A. Harstrom. It might be mentioned in passing that it is said Rossier enjoyed the enviable reputation of being arrested in Belgium, France, Germany, England, Wales and Canada. And this last experience completes his record.

A STRANGER PASSES OVER

Jacksonville residents have become used to having airplanes hovering above the city the last few weeks and such sights are rapidly becoming common places. However yesterday a large plane was reported in the vicinity of Joy Prairie and may have been a "traveler" and not the "oil plane" which we have been used to seeing locally. This plane was reported by Mrs. Chris Horner, one mile north of Joy Prairie station. It was stated that the plane was a large one and flying at a very high altitude, eastbound.

Sigma Pi Literary society held its regular Friday evening meeting at Beecher Hall last night when the following program was given:

Declaimers—Bray and Fraser. Readers—Bronson and Shoemaker. Essayists—Foster and Antrobus. Extemporizer—Peters. Subject: "Outlook for Dorm court next year."

Debate, Resolved, that the government should own the railroads with joint labor, manager, public control. The decision was awarded to the affirmative. The affirmative was upheld by Badger and Green and the negative by Capps and Scott.

The following men were taken into fellowship: Gilbert Catlett, William Scott, Don Henry, and Joseph Weber.

Franklin Scott was elected a member of the Orationist Association.

Phi Alpha Society.
The meeting of Phi Alpha Literary society was opened at 8:00 o'clock by the newly elected president, Wilson Akers. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, John Martin, and followed by prayer.

The following are the extracts from the record program which was enjoyed by all present:

Essayists: Transmissions—Wm. Dewees. Living Cost and Labor—Geo. Harney. Declaimers: The Turkish Bath—E. Smith. Gettysburg—J. Miller.

Extemporizer—Wayne Gard. Debate: Affirmative: Drennan. Negative: Farrell, Haskins. The negative won the debate with the merits. The question for debate was, "Resolved, That the United States should recognize the Irish Republic."

Major John Mullenix, an alumni member of Phi Alpha, visited the society and made a short talk. New members taken in were E. Karr and Wm. Healen.

In addition to these men the order named all other executive board members, district presidents and secretaries of the various districts including officials of anthracite and Canadian district unaffected by the strike. It was stated by L. Ert Slack, United States district attorney for Indiana, that to reach the men resident outside the Indiana federal district it would be necessary to bring auxiliary proceedings in the various jurisdictions.

Mr. Slack was left in charge of the government's case shortly after it became evident that the union would make no immediate move in restraint to it. Judge Ames left for Washington and other members of the special staff which prepared the petition for the attorney general announced they would depart tomorrow. The defendants were summoned to appear Nov. 8 when a motion for a temporary injunction is to be argued.

BUT LITTLE DAMAGE DONE FRIDAY NIGHT

Pillars in Front of Alexander Apartment Pushed Over—Boulevard Light Broken at Central Christian Church.

The Chief of Police Kiloran said there were more people on the streets Friday night than he had ever seen during his police career, but little property damage was reported.

The greatest damage reported was the pushing over of two of the brick pillars in front of the Alexander apartments in West State street. One of the large globes and incandescent lights on one of the boulevard posts at Central Christian church also were broken.

The police believe they have a line on the ones who destroyed the pillars in front of the Alexander apartments. About ten young men were in the party that destroyed the light in front of the church. These men were seen by a number of people at the time and it is thought several of them are known.

Aside from these depredations there was not much damage, most of it being of a minor nature such as pulling down old fences and overturning empty boxes and barrels.

The city was well policed during the hours when most of the masquers were abroad. Chief Kiloran had six automobiles at his service and in each was a regular policeman, with several special officers, all of the day men working with the night force until midnight.

During the evening about forty were taken to the station and held for some time. An especial effort was made to locate the parties who did the damage at the Alexander apartments and Central Christian church. All of those taken to the station were turned loose about midnight but the police are still working on the two cases.

LONG ESTABLISHED FIRM IS DISSOLVED

William Miller Withdraws From Firm of Miller Bros., Long Proprietors of Grocery Store on West Side Public Square—History of Store Recalled.

As noted in another column, the firm of Miller Bros., long established on the west side of the public square, has been dissolved. The reason for this change in one of the oldest firms in Jacksonville is the fact that William Miller is removing to Oregon.

It was back in 1876 that William Miller entered the employ of Russell & Hayden and the year following his brother Matthew also came to the store. After several years, Mr. Russell sold out his interest and the firm became G. and A. Hayden. Still later, Mr. George Hayden withdrew and his brother continued the business for one year, after which it passed into the hands of Miller Bros. That was in 1890, nearly thirty years ago.

The Miller grocery store became one of the staple business houses of Jacksonville and thru a long period of years has enjoyed an extensive patronage. There have been many residents of the county and city who have been patrons of this store in its present location for more than forty years. A dependable policy was adopted in the beginning by the founders of the store and has been adhered to ever since thru the changing ownerships.

Matthew Miller will continue the business after his brother has gone to his western home. The Miller family in leaving Jacksonville will take with them the sincere good wishes of a very large number of friends.

WARNING
Persons are hereby warned not to walk across the 45 acres pasture east of the car shops vicinity, between Walnut St. and Independence Ave. Many hogs are in the pasture and the owner fears disease may be communicated by pedestrians.

PRODUCE COMPANY EMPLOYEE BADLY HURT

Lee Maxwell Severely Injured While at Work on Cannon's Big Truck—Was Squeezed Against Telephone Post When Driver Turns Sharp Corner.

Lee Maxwell of 1356 South East street, employed by the Cannon Produce company as a truck helper, was seriously hurt last night at the corner of West and Morgan streets.

Maxwell thought that he would hurry up his day's work by climbing out of the cab and along the body of the truck to where his orders were and hereby he ready for the next stop. He had just got about half the distance along the side of the truck when the driver of the truck, Joe Ryan, turned the corner at Morgan and West streets. Maxwell was caught between a telephone pole and the truck and was knocked off. Ryan stopped the truck and hastened to his aid, taking him to Dr. C. E. Cole's office.

Dr. Cole gave him first aid treatment but said that he could not tell just how serious the injury is until today when an X-Ray will be taken.

Maxwell was taken to his home by Dr. Cole.

LARGE TURNOVER ON STOCK EXCHANGE

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Disregarding the more critical aspects of the labor situation as suggested by the threatened walkout of the bituminous coal miners to-night stocks were again pushed forward today the turnover being the most extensive, with one exception.

Steels, equipments and affiliated shares dominated the market to a greater degree than at any recent period. In a number of noteworthy instances new maximums not only for the year, but for all previous periods were registered.

Most prominent features included Republic from which retained the greater part of its 15 point advance; Lackawanna and Gulf States steels at extreme gains of 8 points. Pressed Steel Car five and others of that group 2 to 4. U. S. Steel however, eased at the close.

Baldwin Locomotive led the equipments and several of the less prominent shares of that division made gross gains of 5 to 12 points.

Shipments, Republic and Stutz Motors, United States Rubber, American Woolen, May Department Stores, International Paper, American Writing Paper preferred and sugars comprehended the other outstanding stocks advancing 4 to 20 points. Sales amounted to 1,950,000 shares.

Bonds were without especial feature. Total sales (par value) aggregated $13,375,000.

VISIT IS MADE TO MAUVAISTERRE SCHOOL

Well Located But Pupils Have Decreased in Recent Years—Pupils Show Interest in Description of Foreign Lands.

The pleasant work of visiting country schools was continued yesterday with a call at the Mauvaisterre school. The school has decreased somewhat in the number attending as formerly two teachers were required but now Miss Nello M. Quigg handles the whole force without difficulty. They are having one trouble out there and perhaps the gentle reader never heard of it before. They are having trouble in getting mechanics to do needed work about the building. This is singular, isn't it?

The plastering needs repairing and some other work is needed and the directors, Messrs. Gregg Tindall, president; Charles Bealmer, clerk; and William Burmeister, are doing their best to get the men at it and hope some time to succeed. Miss Quigg said they had a number of pictures to hang but were waiting for the walls to be mended and papered and some other things done and then they would be in better shape.

Some good cement walks have recently been supplied. The building is quite comfortable, with good ventilation and light; good furniture and some accessories. They have a fairly good library, a cabinet organ, some maps and charts and in general are very well fixed for business. A few more hard wood shade trees on the lot would help make the place somewhat and these will probably come in time.

They have some bright boys and girls in that school and it was a pleasure to note the way in which most answered in union when some questions were asked. They also did pretty well in the matter of asking questions and as the teacher said, they doubtless thought of many more after the visitor was away. They showed an eager interest in all that was said to them and an intelligent appreciation of the description of the marvels of a far away wonderland.

FOOTBALL GAME IS POSTPONED

Illinois-Wesleyan Tilt Postponed Until Monday—Condition of Field Cause.

Friday morning as Coach Harmon was getting ready to go to the train to take the Illinois football squad to Bloomington he received a message from Coach Muhl of Wesleyan asking that the game be postponed until Monday. Coach Muhl said that owing to the heavy rains Wilder field was a sea of mud. As Illinois has no game scheduled for next week Coach Harmon agreed to the postponement.

That the rain must have been heavy in Bloomington is shown by the fact that the Peoria Manual-Bloomington High game scheduled for this afternoon was postponed until next Tuesday.

NOTICE

In accord with recent action of leading Jacksonville merchants, and for the benefit of employees, we, the undersigned jewelers will open at 8 a. m., and close at 5:30 p. m., except Saturday, closing at 9 p. m. Effective this date.

E. W. BASSETT,

MORE RAIN.

Another heavy rain fell Thursday night and drenched all low-lying places. Many from the country reported wells full. The new lake is a foot over the Vandallia road at Nichols park and the park lake lacks but two or three inches of running over the spillway. It will trouble the people having in hand the grading of the Vandallia road to get their work done as the valve in the new dam is hardly large enough to let out the water as fast as it while material is being dumped for the completion of the new dam spillway but Mr. Walbridge hopes it will not be wanting long. Wild ducks continue to visit the new lake in small numbers from day to day and Thursday a wild goose, evidently having heard that use of guns in Nichols Park was strictly prohibited, remained about the lake a good part of the day taking his polite leave in the evening.

Public Sale—A closing out sale will be held at my farm northeast of the city Nov. 5 at 1 p. m. W. M. DWYER.

BE ACCOMMODATING

There is a great deal of difference between people in this world. Some do a kindness just as naturally as they breathe; others do pleasant things only occasionally or when their attention is called to them and again others go thru life or thru the streets in their automobiles as if there were no people beside them. Occasionally one will stop to take in a friend and often not. One lady in this place wisely gives her little folks plenty of fresh air with her car and couldn't pass a friend walking if she tried. No matter how many she has in the car there is room for the pedestrian. Mrs. Thomas Hopper is a modest, retiring lady so the reporter will not mention her name lest she be embarrassed, but would there were more of the same kind.

WANTED
We pay the highest price for walnut logs. See E. C. Simpson, Douglas Hotel.

DOCKET IS READY FOR CIRCUIT COURT

Business of November Term Will be Heavy—Only One Suit Brought Friday—New Cases for November Hearing.

Friday was the last day of service in the Morgan county circuit court for the November term. The filings have been heavier than usual and a large docket awaits the attention of the judge and bar.

Circuit Clerk Boston said yesterday that there was more business in prospect for this term than during any court term since he has been in the office. Only one case was filed yesterday and it was that of S. W. Baxter, conservator vs. James R. Crane. The bill was filed by Thompson & Thompson, representing the complainant. It is set forth that the defendant some years ago entered into a contract for the care of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Crane, and as a part of the agreement came into possession with them of a house and ten acres of land in South Jacksonville.

A note for $6,000 which the defendant owed Mr. and Mrs. Baxter also enters into the contract—that is, whether interest payments were to be remitted. It is set forth in the bill that in these latter years the defendant has failed to carry out a part of the contract and has not taken care of Mrs. Crane as the contract provided—that she has been in a hospital and the expense has not been borne by the defendant. It is the purpose of the complainant thru the bill to require that possession of the property mentioned shall be turned over to the conservator and that an accounting shall be made for the interest due on the $6,000 obligation.

The court docket shows the following new cases for November hearing, in addition to the one mentioned above:

DEPENDENT CHILDREN NEED COUNTY CARE

Vital Problem for Solution Suggested by Judge Samuel in Address to Rotary Club—Many Cases Come to Juvenile Court Attention.

The weekly luncheon of the Rotary club was held Friday at the Pacific hotel. President H. M. Capps made a brief report of the inter-city Rotary club convention held recently in Quincy and Dr. Hepburn, president of the Peoria Creamery and former member of the faculty of the University of Illinois, spoke briefly. The address was made by Judge H. P. Samuel, who outlined some of the functions of the county court and in a very succinct way summed up the needs for a detention home in Morgan county.

Judge Samuel during recent months has evidenced a deep interest in the work of the juvenile court and yesterday he discussed without names a number of cases of dependent, neglected or delinquent children and explained the differences of the terms used under the law.

Weekly Cases.
The speaker admitted that when he first entered upon his duties as judge that he did not understand the amount or the importance of the work of the juvenile court, but that the records showed an average of at least two cases a week. There are cases continually coming before the court that appeal most strongly to sympathy and yet under present conditions there is little that can be done for the permanent improvement of these fatherless, neglected or incorrigible children.

The speaker said that he had long since come to the view that little can be done in the matter of reforming or benefiting adults who belong to the deficient or delinquent classes, but in the case of childhood it is different, and that upon the care and attention given to problems of the kind there is hope of greatly benefiting both the individuals and society in general.

In many of the counties of the state, according to an investigation which Judge Samuel undertook, he found that homes for delinquent children are operated under county supervision in accordance with law which makes possible the levying of a tax for this purpose.

The Reform Schools.
In the juvenile court a probation officer makes report of cases which come under observation and gives the court all facts available. Then hearings are held and on the basis of evidence the court takes the steps which seem best. Delinquent or incorrigible children can be sent to the home for girls at Geneva or the home for boys at St. Charles, but as Judge Samuel sees it, it is not fair to a neglected or dependent child—perhaps one whose parents are both dead and who has committed no wrong—to be sent to these reform institutions.

Case after case was recounted where the court was absolutely at a loss to know what to do with neglected and dependent children. Applications continually come in from persons willing to take such children but usually these applications are from people who want the children, not for the care that can be given them, but for the work that they may do.

Judge Samuel made it very plain that while the matter was very much upon his heart and that because of the cases under his observation he could see how much can be done for children without homes and without proper guardians if the facilities of a home for dependent children were but available.

At the close of the address Frank J. Heim spoke for a moment of his experiences as county clerk when the question of delinquent and dependent children first came to his attention in an intimate way. Judge Yates was presiding in the county court and there were many pitiable cases where the proper relief or environment could not be provided simply because it was not available. In days prior to that period it had been the practice to send children to the county poor farm but this practice was immediately discontinued.

A New Plan Suggested.
In those days too there were a great many insane persons cared for at the county home and Mr. Heim expressed the belief that the day for the county home operated on its present plan had passed. He advocated the sale of the county farm and the establishment of a county home near the tuberculosis sanatorium on a small acreage and in the same locality a home for dependent children. Mr. Heim's thought was that by the near location of these enterprises that there would be much less overhead expense and a greater efficiency in service.

The interest of every member of the club in the whole project was very apparent and on motion of Dr. Rammelkamp the chair was authorized to appoint a committee of three to consider the matter and to suggest some plan whereby steps can be taken to relieve the situation.
